Property Description

Tawa Centre is a two-storey, 95,226-square-foot mixed-use development with a primary focus on healthcare tenancies, conveniently located adjacent to the Grey Nuns Community Hospital. The building's first floor retail configuration provides prime street-level visibility and separate suite entrances, well suited to service-oriented healthcare tenants. The second floor's multi-tenant layout is ideal for medical, clinical or office users who require proximity to the hospital. Easily accessed by car or transit, Tawa Centre is occupied by a variety of healthcare and retail services including medical consultation clinics, diagnostic imaging, a lab, and a pharmacy.
